Coupling Process with Technology

CRM systems can be cumbersome if not married to a process for managing data and planning sales strategies. World-Class Sales Organizations, those that were more likely to report growth in key metrics such as customer retention and forecast accuracy, were more than three times more likely to indicated their sales management team is recognizing value from their CRM data.

Our CRM system provides data that our sales management team consistently uses to make decisions.

"We wrestled with getting our salespeople to use our CRM system. Additionally, it was difficult to track who was effectively using the sales process and who was struggling. Sales Access ManagerSM helped us gain a clear picture of that. At the click of a button I know our organization has 120 active Blue Sheet strategies in play and the total value of these deals exceeds $10 million in business for this quarter alone."
